Sigma Omega Nu Latina Interest Sorority, Inc. National Bylaws

Article I. Preamble

Sigma Omega Nu Latina Interest Sorority, Inc. established its National Board as a way of uniting all of its Chapters under one official board. This organization shall be a non-profit public benefit organization.

Article II. Mission Statement

Sigma Omega Nu is an organization that is built on academics, cultura, and sisterhood. Sigma Omega Nu provides a support system, cultura awareness, and a long-live sisterhood. It is a comfort zone where respect, accountability, and compassion are given and learned for womxn and the community.

Article III. Vision Statement

Sigma Omega Nu, Latina Interest Sorority, Inc. offers a unique sisterly experience for empowering womxn, by creating scholastic excellence, bringing cultura awareness, and providing a sisterhood bond in higher education.

Article IV. Purpose

The purpose of the National Board shall be to act as the guiding board for Sigma Omega Nu Latina Interest Sorority, Inc. The National Board shall provide leadership and guidance for all Sigma Omega Nu members and Chapters to successfully strive for scholastic excellence, Latina/o cultural awareness, sisterhood, community service, self-improvement and professional development. The National Board shall provide general guidance to members and Chapters for their continual progress and advancement. The National Board may act as a mediator between Chapters in order to provide solutions for conflicts or disputes. The National Board shall also be responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Expansion Process.

Article V. Identification

Section A. Organization Identification

The official name of this sorority is Sigma Omega Nu, Latina Interest Sorority, Inc. This name may be used interchangeably with Sigma Omega Nu or the Greek ΣΩΝ. The name Sigma Omega Nu shall be used in the remainder of this document. The informal nicknames of “SON” and “Sunnies” may also be used to identify the Sorority however these nicknames may only be used for informal identification purposes only.

Section B. Definitions

The following definitions shall also be used in the remainder of this document:

1. National Board Officers: Those members of the Executive Cabinet and the National Directors.
2. National Board Members: Those members currently holding National Office as identified in Article V. below. This includes the Executive Cabinet, the National Directors, and the Members at Large.

Any nominee not providing a resume by this deadline will be automatically removed from the ballot.
 - a. Resumes of nominees must be sent to the National Board Officers within one week after the closing of nominations.

Section B. Elections

1. Requirements
Elections for all positions (other than Regional Directors and Colony Directors) must be conducted no later than July 20 of each year. It is at the discretion of the existing National Board Officers to determine if elections are to be held in-person or virtually. Nominees must be present and available on the date of elections as identified by the National Board. If a nominee is not present, their name will automatically be removed from the ballot..
2. Election
Before voting commences, nominees must give a speech addressing their plans, goals, etc. for their nominated position(s). The National Board Officers will be given the opportunity to ask questions of each candidate. Elections will occur by secret ballot. The National Vice President of Communications is responsible for providing printed ballots. An electronic ballot can be used if agreed upon by the National Board Officers. An option of “No Confidence” shall be listed for all positions, regardless of the number of nominees. Unless otherwise specified, only one name under each position shall be selected. After the National Board Officers have completed their ballot, the National Vice President of Parliament will collect all the ballots. The National President, National Vice President of Parliament and National Comptroller will count the votes for each position. If voting is done by electronic ballot, the National President, National Vice President of Parliament and National Comptroller will ensure that all ballots have been cast. A plurality of votes is needed for a nominated member to win office. After the votes have been counted, and each new officer is identified, the current President will announce the new officers for the following term.

- a. In case of a tie, the National Vice President of Parliament will repeat the election process and the vote shall be between the tied members only.
 - b. In the event of a single nominee for any given office, a speech must still be presented, and voting shall take place as usual. If a majority vote of “no confidence” is received, nominations and elections shall begin again following the announcement of the other offices.
3. Regional Directors
The Regional Directors shall be elected at the annual National Convention. The procedure for election will be the same as the procedure for other Officers, identified above. Each Regional Director shall be elected only by the Chapters that are within her Region. The Regional Directors will take office immediately after election.
4. Colony Directors
Elections for Colony Directors shall be held at the National Board meeting identified in the Strategic Plan prepared by the Director of Expansion. The procedure for election will be the same as the procedure for other Officers, identified above.

Section C. Term

1. Executive Cabinet Officers
Executive Cabinet officers shall be elected for a two-year term, beginning on August 1 and ending on July 31 two years later.
2. Regional Directors
Regional Directors shall be elected for a two-year term, beginning in August and ending in July two years later.
3. Directors and Members at Large

4. Colony Directors
Colony Directors will serve only for the duration of the Colony Process for which they are elected.

Section D. Installation

Newly elected National Board Officers officially take office on August 1, but will be presented to the Sorority during the annual National Convention. The new Officers will run the National Council meeting held during National Convention. Regional Directors and Colony Directors shall take office immediately after election. National Chapter Representatives shall serve for a term as required by the Chapter Bylaws.

Section E. Term Limits

All National Board Members are eligible for re-election. Executive Cabinet and Regional Directors cannot hold the office for more than two consecutive terms. National Directors and Members at Large cannot hold the office for more than four consecutive terms.

Article X. Vacancies and Resignations

Section A. Vacant Office

Should a vacancy exist, it shall be filled promptly by nomination and election, following the same rules for the standard election of officers. If the office remains vacant for more than 4 months after elections are held, the National President may appoint someone to that position. However, the appointee must meet the qualifications for that position and provide a resume of qualifications to the National Board Officers within 48 hours of being appointed. The appointee will take office only after the resume has been reviewed and the appointee has received a majority vote by the National Board Officers. When a vacancy is filled by appointment, the remainder of the term being filled shall not be counted towards the term limit identified in Article IX., Section E. Term Limits.

Section B. Resignation

Resignation from office shall be accepted for emergency cases. Any National Board Officer vacating her position after she has accepted the responsibility to take an office shall be required to present her case for doing so to the National Board. After hearing her case, the National Board will deliberate and vote first to approve the resignation, and second on whether she shall be penalized for vacating her office. A simple majority vote is needed for both. If the National Board finds that her resignation is not for an emergency reason as identified in Article VIII Responsibilities & Duties, Section B Relief from Obligations, she shall be prohibited from holding any office within the National Board for a period of one year, effective immediately.

Section C. Removal from Office

All National Board Officers are limited to no more than one unexcused meeting absence per term year (August through July). If an Officer has a second unexcused meeting absence within the term year, she will be removed from office, effective as of the date of the second missed meeting. The position will be considered vacant immediately following the meeting and may be filled by appointment, as described in Section A above.

Article XI. Removal from Office

Section A. Removal

Any National Board Member may be removed from office for the following reasons:

1. More than one unexcused meeting absence per term year.
2. As a sanction resulting from a formal Judicial Review if the results of the Judicial Review demonstrated that the Officer significantly failed to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of their office.

If an Officer is removed from National office due to unexcused absences, the removal alone will not affect their member status or standing.

A member who was removed from office may not fill any other vacant office by appointment, but may be nominated during the next election cycle.

Section B. Appeal

Any member who has been removed from office as a consequence of a formal Judicial Review may appeal the decision to the National Board through the Judicial Review appeal process.

Article XII. Dues and Fines

Section A. Administration of Funds

Funds shall be administered through the National Vice President of Finance. In the event the National Vice President of Finance is unable to administer funds, the National President may act on her behalf.

Section B. Member Account Balance Statement

each National Board Officer at every National Board Meeting, for each Chapter at every National Council Meeting, and for all that owe a balance at least two weeks prior to any payment deadlines established. Late fees shall be imposed upon all unpaid dues and fines.

Section C. Dues

Dues are required to be paid by all members actively participating in a Chapter of Sigma Omega Nu. A portion of these dues is owed to the National Board in order to fund National events, activities, and programming. The National Board is permitted to use these funds as they see fit, so long as it is used for the exclusive betterment of the Sorority.

1. Chapter Dues

All Sigma Omega Nu Chapters shall be responsible for paying dues to the National Board. The amount owed to National Board is $75 per Chapter Member that holds Active or Inactive Status. This amount is due by October 15 of each year, along with the Membership Dues form.

2. New Member Dues

When New Members are initiated into a Chapter, New Member Dues are owed to the National Board in the amount of $75 per New Member. This amount is due within two weeks after Crossover, along with the New Member Initiation Form. This requirement also applies to Colonies and the establishment of new Chapters

3. National Alumnae Dues

Alumnae who desire to maintain Active Status with the Sorority but not at an Undergraduate Chapter may obtain National Active Alumna status with the National Board. National Alumnae Dues are available in the following tiers: Black Level ($50); Burgundy Level ($75); and Gold Level ($100). See the National Board Standing Rules for more information.

4. Pledgeship Dues

All Little Sisters are required to pay a non-refundable fee before beginning the Sigma Omega Nu Pledgeship Process. This applies to both Chapter Pledgeship and Colony Pledgeship. The amount of Pledgeship Dues is to be determined by each Chapter, or in the case of a Colony by the Colony Directors.

Section D. Fines & Late Fees

1. Officers and Chapters will be fined for absence or tardiness to any National meeting or event, or for missed deadlines, in accordance with the fees listed in the National Standing Rules.
2. The National Board reserves the right to charge an additional fee of $25 or the amount charged by the bank, whichever is greater, for any returned payments, incomplete transfers, and/or bounced checks.
3. The National Board reserves the right to charge a late fee of 5% of each amount past due. This late fee will be applied as soon as the amount is considered past due, and every 12 months thereafter.
4. Any fines collected from members during a Colony Pledgeship will be donated to the new chapter once established. If the Colony is unable to establish a chapter for any reason, the fines collected will be added to the SON Member Scholarship Fund.

Section E. Notice of Deposit

Any individual or Chapter making a deposit into the National Board account shall notify the National Vice President of Finance of the deposit within 24 hours. A copy of the bank receipt signed by the individual or Treasurer of the Chapter making the deposit shall be presented to the National Vice President of Finance no later than the next National Board meeting. Any deposits unaccounted for by the following National Board meeting shall be considered a donation to the National Board.

Section F. Financial Contract

In the event that a Member of the National Board or a Chapter is not able to pay off her existing account balance at once, she may choose to set up a Financial Contract with the National Vice President of Finance.

Article XIII. Meetings

Section A. Executive Cabinet Meetings

1. The Executive Cabinet shall hold a meeting a minimum of once every three months. Executive Cabinet meetings are held via conference call or another virtual platform. Should the Executive Cabinet need to meet in-person, the National President will call the in person meeting to order with at minimum a 3-month notice.

2. National Council Meetings shall require the attendance of the Executive Cabinet, Directors, Members at Large, and one Chapter Representative. The Chapter Representatives must be the Chapter's elected National Board Representative.
3. Only the elected National Board Representative will be counted for purposes of quorum. If the elected Representative is unable to attend, the Chapter must identify an additional Executive Board officer to serve as a proxy and must then notify the National Vice President of Communications and the National Vice President of Parliament a minimum of 1 week prior to the National Council meeting.
4. In addition to the usual National Board meeting agenda, it will be at this meeting that any proposals to revise any of Sigma Omega Nu's governing documents may be presented, discussed and voted on. Changes to governing documents will not be entertained at any other meeting. It is the responsibility of each National Board Officer and Chapter Representative to ensure they are prepared to discuss and vote on each proposal presented. No properly submitted proposal will be tabled due to lack of preparation on behalf of the attendees. Any proposals must be submitted to the National Board Vice President a minimum of one month prior to a National Council meeting. See the National Standing Rules for Proposal Procedures.

Section D. National Convention

The National Convention shall be composed of two parts: the National Conference, and the National Council Meeting.

1. The National Conference
The annual National Conference shall be held during the month of August, at a location determined by the National Executive Cabinet.
2. The National Council Meeting
This meeting of the National Council shall be the meeting at which the newly elected National Board officers take office and at which the Regional Directors are elected.

Section E. Dress Code

All members attending National Board and National Council meetings shall dress in business casual or business professional attire.

Section F. Meeting Agenda Addition

1. It shall be the responsibility of each National Board Officer who would like to be on any National Board meeting agenda to contact the National Vice President of Communications at least four days prior to any scheduled National meeting to be included on the agenda.
2. If any Member of the Sorority has an issue they would like addressed or reviewed by the National Board, the Member must have first attempted to address the issue through any identified appeal processes at the Chapter level prior to raising it to the National Board. If all relevant appeal processes at the Chapter level have been exhausted, the Member may request to have their issue added to the next National Board meeting agenda by contacting the National Vice President of Communications at least four days prior to any scheduled National Board meeting to be included on the agenda. For appeals related to Judicial Review sanctions, follow the appeal process outlined in the Judicial Review process.

Section G. President and Vice President Absence

4. The National Vice President of Finance is to set up an Omega Fund for the family. All funds collected will be distributed to the family after 1 month.
5. The National Vice President of Finance is to order a wreath for the funeral services containing white & yellow roses.

Article XVII. Regions

The boundaries of each region may change on a biannual basis to coincide with the term of the Regional Directors and each time a new Chapter is established. Once elected, the National President, National Vice President and National Vice President of Undergraduate Affairs will determine appropriate regions based on the current number of Active Undergraduate Chapters, as well as any prospective chapters that may be established in the coming year. Each region should have approximately the same number of Chapters, but no more than five (5). The proposed regions will be presented to the Executive Cabinet for a vote. Once approved, the National Vice President of Parliament will inform all National Board officers, as well as all National Chapter Representatives, and announce the immediate opening for nominations. Each Chapter is responsible for providing this information to its active and alumnae membership.

Article XVIII. Deactivation

1. When a member of Sigma Omega Nu no longer wishes to be a member of this Sorority, the subsequent process shall be followed.
 - a. Submit a formal letter via email to the National President requesting deactivation. The letter should state her reasons for deactivation, and must be signed and dated/
 - b. The letter will be shared with the Executive Cabinet of the initiating Chapter and the National Executive Cabinet.

- c. The National President shall grant the member a preliminary deactivation pending an exit interview with the Sister requesting deactivation. The exit interview shall be conducted no later than three months after the request for deactivation was received.
 - d. The Executive Cabinet shall review the responses to the exit interview, and provide the most relevant information about the member's deactivation to the initiating Chapter.
 - e. The National President shall then write the official Letter of Deactivation and provide a copy to the former member, the initiating Chapter, and the National Vice President of Communications. The letter must remind the former member of her oath of confidentiality. The National President must also request the former member to return any Sorority property or paraphernalia, and will identify a method most convenient to the former member.
 - f. The National Vice President of Communications will remove the former member's contact information from the National Roster. Her nickname will also be removed from the nickname list.
2. As part of the Judicial Review process, the Judicial Review Committee (at the Chapter or National level) is permitted to submit a Recommendation for Deactivation as one of the sanctions, in addition to suspension, when appropriate. If the Recommendation for Deactivation is passed unanimously by the committee, the process is as follows:
- a. The overseer of the Judicial Review Committee shall submit a formal request via email to the National President. The request must include the following: the Official Judicial Review results, the Suspension Letter provided to the Sister, and an additional letter stating the Chapter's reasons for requesting deactivation.
 - b. The National President will share the letter with the National Executive Cabinet.
 - c. The National President shall set up an interview between the National Executive Cabinet and the Sister being recommended for deactivation.
 - d. The National Executive Cabinet shall review the documentation provided by the Chapter Sergeant at Arms or the National Vice President of Parliamentary Procedures and the responses from the Sister provided during the interview.
 - e. The National Executive Cabinet will then vote on whether or not to deactivate the Sister. A minimum of three-fourths (3/4) approval is needed to deactivate the Sister.
 - f. Should the National Executive Cabinet vote to deactivate the Sister, the National President must schedule an exit interview with the former member no later than three months after the decision was made.
 - i. Should the National Executive Cabinet vote to deactivate a Sister and should the Sister appeal the decision, a written request must be made to the Alumnae Advisory Committee. The Alumnae Advisory Committee will review the written request and decide to uphold or revoke the deactivation. To reverse the decision made by the National Executive Cabinet, a 2/3 vote will be required. Sanctions may be voted on as a whole or individually, at the discretion of the overseer of the appeal. If the vote fails, the original sanctions will be upheld.
 - ii. Should there be no active Alumnae Advisory Committee, another committee shall be formed, using the same rules as a Judicial Review Committee, but include none of the members of the original committee. This committee shall review the written request and decide to uphold or revoke the deactivation. To reverse the decision made by the National Executive Cabinet, a 2/3 vote will be required. Sanctions may be voted on as a whole or individually, at the discretion of the overseer of the appeal. If the vote fails, the original sanctions will be upheld.
 - g. The National President will provide the most relevant information about the member's deactivation to the initiating Chapter.
 - h. The National President shall then write the official Letter of Deactivation and provide a copy to the former member, the initiating Chapter, and the National Vice President of Communications. The National Vice President of Communications will remove the former member's contact information from the National Roster. Her nickname will also be removed from the nickname list.

Article XIX. Amendments

Amendments to any of the Sigma Omega Nu governing documents may be proposed by any Chapter or National Board Officer. Proposed amendments to governing documents will only be accepted in accordance with the process outlined in the National Standing Rules. Proposed amendments will only be voted on during National Council Meetings at which a quorum prevails.

Section A. Amendments Proposed by a Chapter

Amendments proposed by a Chapter must first be voted on by the respective Chapter and approved with a 3/4 (75%) affirmative vote. If the 3/4 affirmative vote is received, the proposed amendment must then be submitted to the National Vice President by the identified deadline for consideration at the next National Council meeting. The proposed amendment will only be incorporated into the respective governing document if a 3/4 affirmative vote is received during the National Council Meeting.
